Living A Life Beyond Influence

This is an unforgettable and inspirational program designed for purpose driven leaders that want to create a life of success and significance.

Your audience will learn:

- How to lead with such clarity and purpose that your entire organization will be more energized
- A process to become the leader you know you can be by re-framing how you view your past successes, failures and experiences
- How to summon the courage to move into your zone of living beyond influence and create the life you were meant to live

Summary:

Few people are living life fully. Most are passive spectators, watching their lives unfold. Others are unconsciously following someone else's agenda, unaware they are living lives of smoldering discontent. John shares exhilarating stories from his days as a fighter pilot and moving examples from his comeback after a near-fatal accident changed the trajectory of his life forever. You will learn how to unlock your potential and live life fully alive

Audiences:

- Leaders in financial services, technology and the US Government / Military.
- Associations and non-profits serving entrepreneurs and the business community

Program Length:

- This program can be customized from 45-90 minutes (keynote/breakout) to half-day, full day, and 2-day formats.
